Dear Mr. Superintendent:

In accordance with the Basic Legal Circular 029 / 2014, Chapter VI, Title I, Part III (Resolution No. 116, February 27 / 2002 from the Superintendence of Securities), I inform that for Banco de Bogotá's Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting that will take place on Monday, March 13th / 2023, and taking into account procedures established by Banco de Bogotá's Board of Directors, the Bank's Management has advised all staff responsible for verification of compliance with the control procedures established by current regulation, to follow appropriate measures to ensure the effective participation of shareholders at the Meeting, avoiding conducts that do not comply with Articles 184 and 185 of the Code of Commerce and Article 23 of Law 222 / 1995.

To that effect, the Bank has issued internal circular VR-8108 (copy attached), which was published and disclosed to all the Bank's staff.

Finally, through this communication we are informing to the market in general, compliance with the above mentioned regulation.

Sincerely,

(Original Signed)
SERGIO URIBE ARBOLEDA
Board of Directors Vice-Chairman

CIRCULAR
VR-8108

TO : ALL BANCO DE BOGOTÁ BRANCHES AND GENERAL HEADQUARTERS

FROM: SECRETARY GENERAL

REF : EXTRAORDINARY SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING – BASIC LEGAL CIRCULAR 029 / 2014 CHAPTER VI, TITLE I, PART III (RESOLUTION No. 0116, FEBRUARY 27 / 2002 ISSUED BY THE SUPERINTENDENCY OF SECURITIES): "ILLEGAL, UNAUTHORIZED AND UNSAFE PRACTICES".

Regarding Banco de Bogotá's Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting that will take place on Monday, March 13th / 2023, we remind all staff that the referred regulation has established that in so far as they may be contrary to Articles 184 and 185 of the Code of Commerce and Article 23 of Law 222 / 1995, in particular numerals 2, 6 and 7, staff from a share-issuing company must abstain from incurring directly or indirectly into any of the following conducts:

"1.1.1. - To encourage, promote or suggest to shareholders to grant powers of attorney, without clear definition of the name of the representative to Shareholders' Meetings of the respective company.

1.1.2.- To receive from shareholders, powers of attorney for Shareholders' Meetings, without clear definition of the name of the respective representative.

1.1.3.- To admit as valid, powers of attorney granted by shareholders in order to participate in Shareholders' Meetings, when such powers do not comply with requirements established in Article 184 of the Code of Commerce.

1.1.4.- Regarding those who as established in the by-laws act as legal representatives of the company, the liquidators and other employees from the share-issuing company, to suggest or decide on who will act as holder of power of attorney in Shareholders' Meetings.

1.1.5.- Regarding those who as established in the by-laws act as legal representatives of the company, the liquidators and other employees from the share-issuing company, to recommend shareholders to vote for a specific list.

1.1.6.- Regarding those who as established in the by-laws act as legal representatives of the company, the liquidators and other employees from the share-issuing company, to suggest, coordinate or agree with any shareholder or any shareholder's representative, on presenting to the Meeting propositions for its consideration.

1.1.7.- Regarding those who as established in the by-laws act as legal representatives of the company, the liquidators and other employees from the share-issuing company, to suggest, coordinate or agree with any shareholder or any shareholder's representative, voting for or against any of the propositions presented at the Shareholders' Meeting.

In all cases, managers or employees of the share-issuing company, may exercise the political rights inherent to their own shares and those they represent when acting as legal representatives."

Regarding the receipt of powers of attorney to attend Banco de Bogotá's Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting, it is reminded that prior to the meeting, Banco de Bogotá's Centro de Gestión Mercado de Capitales is the only authorized body to receive them for appropriate revision of compliance with requirements regarding their validity, accept them, or return them promptly for correction when they do not comply with said requirements.

It has been, and is, the Bank's policy that its employees act in a neutral way towards all shareholders, and guarantee their effective participation in the Shareholders' Meeting and in the exercise of their rights. In accordance with the latter, and as stipulated in the aforementioned Basic Legal Circular, we reiterate to all employees that they must continue to refrain from any practice that violates these principles.

Sincerely,

JUANITA CUBIDES DELGADO
SECRETARY GENERAL
