Banco de Bogotá announces pricing of Private Offering of Subordinated Notes

Bogotá, October 28, 2016 - Banco de Bogotá S.A. (the "Bank") today announced the pricing of its previously announced private offering of an additional US$500 million 6.250% subordinated notes due 2026. The notes will be issued as additional notes to the Bank's existing US$600 million 6.250% subordinated notes due 2026 issued in May 2016. The yield of the new notes was 5.95%. The new notes will bear interest at a rate of 6.250% payable semiannually in arrears on May 12 and November 12 of each year, commencing on November 12, 2016. Upon settlement of this new offering, an aggregate of US$1,100 million of the Bank's 6.250% subordinated notes due 2026 will be outstanding. The notes will mature on May 12, 2026. The Bank will issue the new notes to substitute an outstanding US$500 million promissory note it originally issued to Grupo Aval Limited on December 21, 2015. The closing of the private offering is expected to take occur on November 4, 2016, subject to customary closing conditions.

The notes are being offered only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, and outside the United States, only to non-U.S. investors pursuant to Regulation S. The notes will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent an effective registration statement or an applicable exemption from registration requirements or a transaction not subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offering, solicitation or sale would be unlawful. Any offers of the notes will be made only by means of a private offering memorandum.

Forward-looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements including the expected issuance of the notes and expected use of proceeds. All statements other than statements of historical fact are, or may be deemed to be, forward-looking statements. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terms such as "anticipate," "estimate," "believe," "continue," "could," "intend," "may," "plan," "potential," "predict," "should," "will," "expect," "objective," "projection," "forecast," "goal," "guidance," "outlook," "effort," "target" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terms.
